

The Corporate Sufi Advantage PUBLIC SEMINARS

Why Corporate Sufi?

Some years ago, Azim Jamal was a highly successful accountant, involved with significant business decisions. But, despite the outward appearance of success, something was missing. This all came to a head when he was doing volunteer work with Afghan refugees. He suddenly realized a truth that shook him to the core. Those refugees, who had lost virtually everything, had a deeply moving inner strength that still shone through. This set him on a new path of purpose, passion, balance and happiness, because material success, though important, is incomplete without spiritual success. In fact, it's a pathway to burn-out and dissatisfaction. So he made a life-altering decision. From that point on he would devote himself to spreading the word about Business, Balance & Beyond.

This in turn has become the guiding light for our 1 and 2 Day Seminars, offering an in-depth exploration of the challenges faced by today's leaders.

What do our 1 and 2-day Public Seminars include?

- Highly interactive exposure to the Business, Balance & Beyond philosophy
- Comprehensive Workbook and handouts for each participant
- 90-Day Personal Score Card for keeping track of progress
- Condensed version of one of Azim's e-books
- Capacity to take 200+ participants
